

The Israel Office

people of Biblical Israel to cope with an often difficult daily life.

The Israel office of CFOIC Heartland is the nerve center of this organization. In Israel, Sondra Oster Baras, the Director, has her finger on the pulse of day-to-day life in Biblical Israel. Many of you have met Sondra personally. She arranges for tour groups to visit the Biblical sites and the Jewish communities in Judea and Samaria and she makes herself available to speak to any Christian group or individual who is interested in her message. From the Israel office, informative publications such as the monthly newsletters, Nahala, Heartland Story, Reflections from Israel and so many brochures and films are created and distributed. CFOIC Heartland's website, constantly updated, is managed out of the Israel office. And it is from Israel, that fundraising projects are chosen, written, nurtured, promoted and brought to fruition.

CFOIC Heartland, Christian Friends of Israeli Communities, was founded with one purpose in mind --to reach out, to educate the Church, to teach about Jewish history and particularly about the Jews currently living in Biblical Israel - the communities of Judea and Samaria. In addition, CFOIC has sought to bridge the two worlds - the Christian world and the Jewish world - two people, two religions, which history has pulled apart.

With the help of CFOIC Heartland, Christians the world over have stood up for Israel and have become cherished friends and supporters of the pioneers of Biblical Israel. Through CFOIC Heartland, they have learned about the Jewish people, their rich history, and their precarious current situation. They have been able to experience the trauma and suffering of the refugees from Gush Katif and they have been brought up to date regarding the daily challenges facing the people in Judea and Samaria. Through CFOIC Heartland, churches, ministries and individuals have visited the communities, met the people, and provided financial support for community projects, making a real difference in the ability of the

But CFOIC Heartland's Israel office needs your help. In the same way that churches and ministries are asked to adopt a community , CFOIC Heartland is seeking both churches and individuals to adopt CFOIC Heartland in Israel.

CFOIC Heartland's Israel office is standing in the gap and bridging the gap between Christian and Jews, between the residents of Biblical Israel and the rest of the world. Please help CFOIC Heartland continue to bring people together, bring people to Israel, and bring love and support to the people of Biblical Israel.

TOTAL Annual Budget for CFOIC Heartland in Israel:.....$150,000
